

Dear U.S. customers,

Unfortunately, due to new tariffs and customs regulations implemented by the current U.S. administration, shipping our books to private customers in the U.S. has become considerably more difficult. Previously, most books were sent as priority letters at an affordable rate and passed through customs without any issues. However, the situation has changed drastically.

From now on, and until further notice, the only feasible shipping option from Germany to the U.S. is a 2 kg parcel priced at €26.49 (approximately US$30.90), which typically contains 4 of our books, and in some cases even 5.
